

There are Eggs in That?

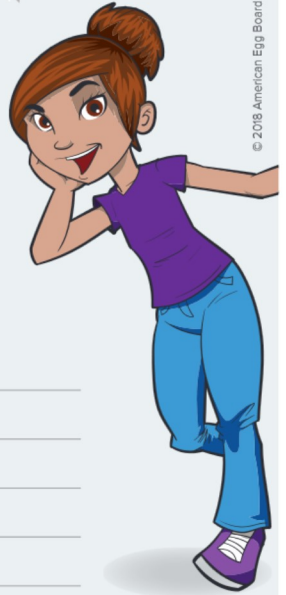

name _____

Recognizing and correcting sentence fragments (L.4.1f)

Shade each egg that contains a complete sentence.

- | | | | | | |
|---|--|--|--|--|---|
| 1.
Many different foods and products contain eggs and egg products. | 2.
Some of them are sure to surprise you. | 3.
Albumen, or the protein from egg whites, in protein shakes. | 4.
Eggs are often used to make pet foods. | 5.
Dressings such as mayonnaise, Thousand Island Dressing, and tartar sauce. | 6.
Marshmallows are made from egg whites. |
| 7.
French toast egg- and milksoaked bread. | 8.
Eggs to make rich and creamy ice cream. | 9.
Eggs' fatty acids are used in make-up and lipstick. | 10.
Are used to make vaccines such as the flu vaccine. | 11.
Beaten eggs brushed on bread dough make the crust golden. | 12.
In some buttercream frosting recipes, egg yolks, sugar, and butter. |

Bonus: Create an egg-shaped miniposter that explains how to spot sentence fragments.

Write the number of each sentence fragment in an egg below. Then rewrite the fragment to make it a complete sentence.

●	_____
●	_____
●	_____
●	_____
●	_____
●	_____

incredible!